

Published based on Dress Yourself For Halloween With Robin Hood Costume Ideas

Dress Yourself For Halloween With Robin Hood Costume Ideas

The new epic adaptation of the traditional Robin Hood legend arrive at theater screens this year, with Russell Crowe plays the key figure. The movie featured epic battles and a fantastic re-telling of the classic story of the man who robbed from the privileged to distribute to the necessitous. The Robin Hood subject is constantly a popular one, but is set to be even bigger in 2010 thanks to his latest movie incarnation!

Putting Together Your Robin Hood Costume

There's no shortage of ready made Robin Hood male costume kits available for those who want to save time and come out with a very authentic costume. Some of the typical features of Robin Hood costume include spike in his headgear, green and brown tunic, jacket and boots. The Latest 2010 Robin Hood doesn't ramble greatly from the traditional personification of the legend. Some of the first options include the Robin Hood Designer Collection Costume for adults, the standard Robin Hood costume for adults, and the Robin Hood Kid Costume.

If you want to design your individual Robin Hood costume therefore start with a decent pair of green tights! Next you'll want a green T-shirt, some green or brown felt, and possibly a jacket depending on what nature of Robin Hood look you want to create.

Maid Marian (Marian Loxley) Costume

Maid Marian is the beautiful wife in the movie, and her outfit is based on traditional medieval English dress. This means you should expect long, lavish dresses, waist band and large sleeves. You can decide what color will be fitting you most excellent, but Marian is often seen dressed in dark green and brunette to tone with Robin.

Friar Tuck Costume

Friar Tuck is always a fun and popular choice at Halloween, especially for those with a fuller figure. Friar Tuck in the 2010 movie is just like we expect him dressed in traditional brown robes and Monks with the standard bowl haircut. You could opt for any Medieval Monk costume, or go specifically for the Friar Tuck Adult man costume. Each come inclusive with hairpiece (as well as bald patch)!

Sheriff of Nottingham Costume

Last, but by no means least, you could choose the Sheriff of Nottingham male costumes. The Sheriff is the notorious bad guy, and you'll have tons of fun playing him on Halloween! The look for the Sheriff does vary from movie to movie. In 2010, it means a long black robe, utter with lots of silvery jewelry, huge black boots, and most notably, a heroic sword! You must get ready to fight your ultimate rival: Robin Hood.

You can also find this article published on Dress Yourself For Halloween With Robin Hood Costume Ideas, and on the tag pages bowl haircut, epic, figure, friar tuck costume, Halloween, robin hood legend.