How To Get The Classic Style Of Graduate

Anne Bancroft and Dustin Hoffman are the major actors in The Graduate of '67. Dustin played a young man who is confused of what life has in store for him. At twenty year old, he graduates from college and comes home to live at his parent's house until he can decide what he wants to do next in his life. Mr Robinson, a beautiful woman took possession of Benjamin soon after. On the course of this affair, Ben begins to develop feelings for Mrs. Robinson's daughter.

During the course of this movie, Dustin Hoffman always remains attractive, whether he is wearing a suit, a polo shirt, or is simply wearing his swim trunks. Watching the movie you might learn a lot about men's wears and it will even help you put that nudge to your dressing style.

Mens Suits- Benjamin Braddock's Suits

He always appears in suit especially if he is not in the pool or on the bed. These are classic suits that makes a man remain distinguished. Often, the jackets of the suits were plain and dark, while the pants were a different shade of the jacket color. Other times, the suits consisted of light colored jackets with darker dress pants. The tie is specifically chosen to complete the outfit.

For formal occasions, the suit always goes with light dress shirts. You can change the color of the shirt depending on the suit. The dress shirts were often worn by themselves as well, when a jacket was not needed.

Looking Casual With Mens Suits- Being A Bit More Casual

There were times when Dustin Hoffman appeared on screen wearing a suit, but with a more casual polo shirt underneath it. This is a very stylish and yet casual display. Occasionally he was also seen wearing only a polo shirt and slacks.
