Looking for the Perfect Jewelry this Spring? | Choose from One of the Top Spring Jewelry Trends

The top Spring jewelry trends this year bring back some old favorites, but include a mix of cool shapes, colors and are architecturally pleasing. Most of the trends are more like wearable art than jewelry, so try to be a little more bold this year and complete your outfits with one of our Top 9 Spring Jewelry Trends.

Black & White

White is making a big comeback this season in both clothes and jewelry! You will see some classy white jewelry pieces that include white onyx, ceramic and mother-of-pearl. Blackened steel and silver will be extremely popular this year as well as black diamonds and black sapphires.

Cabochon Stones

The mixing of giant Cabochon-style stones in different shapes and colors bring back some of the looks from the 70s and 80s. Turquoise stones will be popular as well and you should expect to see them in large stones for necklaces and chunky bracelets. These pieces will be meant to make a big statement, while at the same time looking elegant.

Large Gemstone Rings

You will be making a big statement with an oversized cocktail ring. These rings will be able to be found with just about any gemstone, with aquamarine being especially popular. These are included in most jewelry designers Spring collections. Also, they have made them available in yellow gold, white or rose gold, platinum and sterling silver.

Bold Metals

Big and bold is in, especially when its made out of metals. There will be chunky necklaces and link chains in sterling silver, yellow gold and rose gold. Designers have also included some texture on the metal that makes them look even more edgy.

Plastics

There is a trend toward childlike, whimsical jewels with a 60s feel and can always find a place in your wardrobe. This spring, we are really excited that designers like Karen Walker and Marni have offered fun plastic necklaces and wide perspex-like color cuff bracelets.

Rose-Gold

When it comes to jewelry fashions, it is always a guessing game each season to see which metal will prevail: silver or gold? Well, for spring, the more exotic rose-gold is stealing center-stage, with a striking necklace by Eddie Borgo and a surprisingly sophisticated Michael Kors watch taking top honors on our spring/summer wish-list.

Animal Inspired

There will be a ton of safari-inspired clothing and accessories for spring, which continues the trend set this Winter. You will really enjoy the bold look of stacked cuffs and bangles, layered necklaces and even animal textured watch straps. P

Bohemian

The bohemian chic look offers a blank canvas for accessorizing. You will love all the stacked bangles, that include a multitude of mixed gems, big earrings and yellow gold.

Crosses

Whether you wear a feminine style or a chunky, rock n roll style, crosses are popping up in all the jewelry designers Spring collection.
