Update Your Make Up Kit With A New Lipstick Or Two

Bored by the same worn out nude lipstick or wish to move away from that trusted peach lip gloss?. Introducing a brand new choice of striking lip colours by US brand NYX. There's certain to be something that takes your (or a friend's) fancy. A favourite of both UK and American beauty bloggers NYX has just been introduced to make up counters here in the UK. Its round lipsticks offer great colouration, a beautiful range of colours and fantastic lasting power, all for only a fiver each. So whether you simply want to add a couple of new colors to your collection, or you have started to consider Yuletide presents already, it really does not need to cost masses.

A beautiful pillar box red, 'Eros' may be your staple Xmas colour. Wear under a clear gloss for a sultry look or work it into the lips as a more sophisticated 'stain ' in the day time, pairing with a slick of lip relief over the top. If you are not quite prepared for a full on red, NYX shade 'Femme' is a lovely orange-toned shade that may be worn during the daytime or night. Going for such a striking lipstick? Keep eyes neutral to actually draw attention to the lips, or vice versa.

The perfect lipstick shade for winter, NYX Lipstick 'Chaos' a deep, almost berry-hued brown flatters most skin tones and truly brightens a pale complexion. Go for dewy skin and rosy cheeks for a dazzling winter time look. Perfect for pale skinned lovelies, 'Snow White' is deep brown that has been going down a storm. For the brave make-up fans among you, 'Chloe' is a daringly deep purple/brown which will actually cause some double takes this Yuletide. Go for smoulderingly attractive and pair with a smoky eye look for no holds barred festive glamour.

Alternatively, keep it reasonably straight forward with the orange/naked 'Indian Pink' or 'Paris' , a deep baby pink. Slip one of the NYX famous round lipsticks in your clutch bag and top up as required!. Or why not treat a chum or relative to one of those surprising lipsticks?

Here's to a new look to you this winter. Who knew all it took was a fresh lipstick.
