Sagittarius or the Archer represents the centaur Chiron. In Greek mythology, a centaur is a creature that is half human and half horse. Just about every centaur was considered to be a monster, but Chiron who was unlike the rest, was not. He was a celebrated archer and was know for his kindness. Chiron also was known for his skills as a physician and teacher of the famous heroes Achilles, Jason and Heracles (Hercules). In an act of incredible selflessness, Chiron gave up his immortality to free Prometheus, who had been chained to a rock in punishment for having given mankind fire. Chiron exchanged places with Prometheus, and as a result of his kindness, he was lifted to a position within the stars.

Being a Sagittarian bride, you must be willing to accept novel ideas. So why not consider wearing a beautiful brooch as part of your wedding ensemble? Brooches stand out and will up your confidence. Their flexibility is a trait which shows the Sagittarian concept of newness, growth and change. Feel free to choose an elegant brooch encrusted with diamante and freshwater pearls. Wear it in an unexpected place, like at the waist or as a closure for a wrap. Another idea for a brooch features tiny silver coloured beads along with Swarovski crystals in a contemporary design that's perfect if your wedding has a modern tone. Finally, for an outdoor wedding, especially one near the water, choose a brooch decorated with mother of pearl as well as freshwater pearls. Find a pattern which scatters glistening crystals plus glass beads within the pearls for a one-of-a-kind appearance.

Your wedding ceremony held under the zodiac sign of Sagittarius should be filled with a number of encouraging features, for instance, optimism, development and power.
