Why We Love This Seasons Women's Shirts

The classic women's shirts are this season's coolest, most versatile must have piece. So whether it is worn effortlessly with big jewellery and killer heels or worn underneath a chic city suit to exude boardroom polish nothing quite says elegance like it. But before you go hunting for the perfect women's shirt be sure to read our handy guide on how to wear this continuing goldmine with confidence

If you are liking the smart but the preppy fashion style then try wearing your white fitted shirt with a tailored black jacket and eye poppingly bright accessories including glittery shoes. For the girl next door meet business woman look try pairing up your fitted shirt with a tailored black suit some sexy stilettos and charming jewellery so you can still be all womanly and powerful in the boardroom.

If urban chic is what you are after then why not pair your fitted shirt with some city shorts and to add a bit of extra glam try accessorising the outfit with an oversized handbag and some strappy heels. Incorporate seasonal trends, such as nautical fashions, tribal, animal and safari style, military chic and floral patterns to bring your white fitted shirt look bang up to date. Why not try this seasons structured military jacket and a safari styled pencil skirt to compliment your shirt.

Everyone loves the simpleness of an untucked shirt but for it to look flattering it is not always that easy so be sure to get it fitted to your waist so you feel confident when wearing yours. The sharp collared Hipster shirts are normally best for this style as they are longer in length. For a shirt to fit an athletic build try having darts to the side of the bust as they accentuate curves whereas vertical darts are best for the more curvaceous figure.

Women's shirts have taken this summer's fashion by storm and we couldn't be happier. And so many shirts and ways to wear them there is no excuse for you not owning one.
